

South Carolina Potassium Iodide Distribution Locations

County Health Departments	Location(s)
Aiken County Health Department	828 Richland Avenue, West; Aiken, S.C. 29801
Allendale County Health Department	571 Memorial Avenue, North; Allendale, S.C. 29810
Barnwell County Health Department	164 Calhoun Street; Barnwell, S.C. 29812
Chesterfield County Health Department	203 North Page Street; Chesterfield, S.C. 29709
Darlington County Health Department	305 Russell Street; Darlington, S.C. 29532
Hartsville Health Department (Darlington County)	130 Camden Avenue; Hartsville, S.C. 29550
Fairfield County Health Department	1136 Kincaid Bridge Road; Winnsboro, S.C. 29180
Lee County Health Department	810 Brown Street; Bishopville, S.C. 29010
Lexington County Health Department	112 West Hospital Drive; West Columbia, S.C. 29169
Newberry County Health Department	2111 Wilson Road; Newberry, S.C. 29108
Oconee County Health Department	609 N. Townsville Street; Seneca, S.C. 29679
Walhalla Health Department (Oconee County)	200 Booker Drive; Walhalla, S.C. 29691
Pickens County Health Department	200 McDaniel Avenue; Pickens, S.C. 29671
Richland County Health Department	2000 Hampton Street; Columbia, S.C. 29201
York County Health Department	N. Congress Street; York, S.C. 29745
Rock Hill Health Center (York County)	1070 Heckle Blvd; Rock Hill, S.C. 29732

* – All new doses are 65mg KI tablets. The doses are for emergency workers and the general public. Previous doses with the November 2007 expiration date are 130mg KI tablets.